IRVINE SPECTRUM CENTER

The Irvine Spectrum is one of Irvine's two primary business hubs, spanning 5,000 acres with 38 million square feet of commercial space. It hosts 3,500 companies employing nearly 80,000 people. Around 3,000 apartment residents live within the Irvine Spectrum, with 40 per cent working in the area. The city's major retail destination, the Irvine Spectrum Center, covers 1.2 million square feet and includes over 130 stores, restaurants, and entertainment venues.

Developed by the Irvine Company, the Irvine Spectrum Center is a lifestyle center located in the Irvine Spectrum district on the southeast edge of Irvine, California. It features Nordstrom and Target department stores, a ferris wheel, and a Regal Cinemas 21-screen movie theater. The center was constructed over a decade, with the first phase opening in 1995, followed by subsequent phases in 1998, 2002, and between 2005 and 2006. It was also used for establishing shots of the fictional 'Mall of Miami' in the Disney Channel series Austin and Ally.
