Class A Building in the Heart of Irvine

3 Glen Bell Way is a highly efficient Class A building located in the heart of the Irvine Spectrum — one of Southern California's most desirable corporate submarkets. Offering direct freeway visibility along the I-5 and immediate access to the 405 Freeway, the property provides exceptional convenience for workforce, executive, and client access. Constructed as a premier corporate headquarters, the building delivers a balanced mix of office, open workspace, and high-clear volume areas with robust power, infrastructure, and abundant parking. Its versatile configuration makes it ideally suited for R&D/Tech, Showroom/Design Center, Life Science, and Industrial/Office occupiers.

Where Business, Innovation, and Lifestyle Converge

The Irvine Spectrum is one of Southern California's most active business hubs, spanning 5,000 acres with 38 million SF of commercial space and home to 3,500 companies and 80,000 employees. With more than 3,000 residents—40% of whom work within the district—it offers a strong live-work environment anchored by exceptional amenities.

At its center is the 1.2-million-square-foot Irvine Spectrum Center, featuring 130+ stores, restaurants, and entertainment venues, including Nordstrom, Target, a 21-screen Regal Cinemas, and the iconic Ferris wheel. Since opening in 1995, the Spectrum has grown into one of Orange County's most recognized and vibrant mixed-use destinations.

A Modern Corporate Space, Designed for Flexibility

3 Glen Bell Way offers a refined architectural presence, with expansive glass lines, open volumes, and thoughtfully planned workspace environments. The building's high-clear areas provide an impressive canvas for product display, creative environments, or large-scale innovation. Natural light, clean structural lines, and flexible interior zones allow the space to function as both a modern workspace and a striking visual statement.
